

a bug's life

OUTDOORFAMILIESONLINE.COM

Don't place bugs in an airtight container during observation.

Look under things like rocks, soil, garden containers, or near trees.

Use observation tools like a magnifying glass or binoculars.

Make sure to place bugs back where you found them after observation.

Be sure to wash your hands after doing your daily observations and activities.

